A Pastoral Response to

Human Trafficking

with Deacon Steve Przedpelski

"Human trafficking is a crime against humanity. We must unite our efforts to free victims and stop this crime that's become ever more aggressive, that threatens not just individuals, but the foundation values of society."

- Pope Francis

When, where? Monday, November 18, 2019

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Provincial Conference Center, Priests of the Sacred Heart

7373 S. Lovers Lane Road

On the campus of Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology, just past the Sacred Heart Shrine

Presentation is FREE and open to the public

Dn. Steve Przedpelski, Executive Director of Franciscan Peacemakers in Milwaukee, will speak about his 24 years of ministering to women involved in street prostitution, how much of the sex trade is connected to human trafficking, and what can be done to address this problem, especially by pastors and those involved in pastoral ministry.

This free presentation is sponsored by the North American Migration Committee of the Priests of the Sacred Heart and is open to SCJs and other members of the Dehonian family, as well as the general public.
