

“Lord, what do you want me to do?”

Acts 22:10

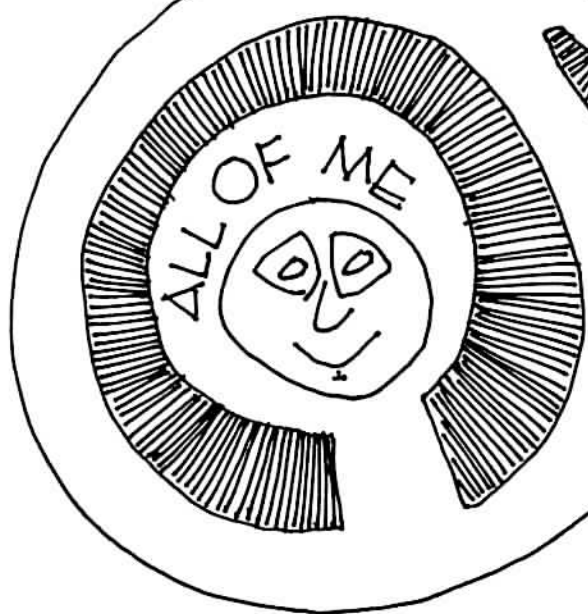

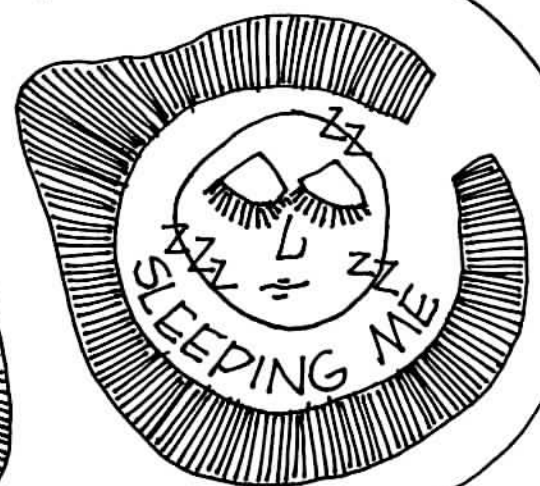

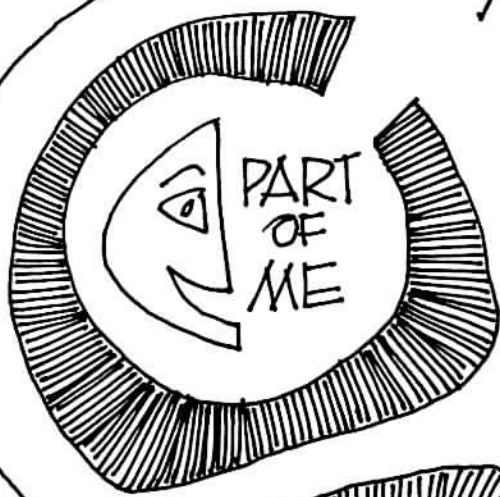

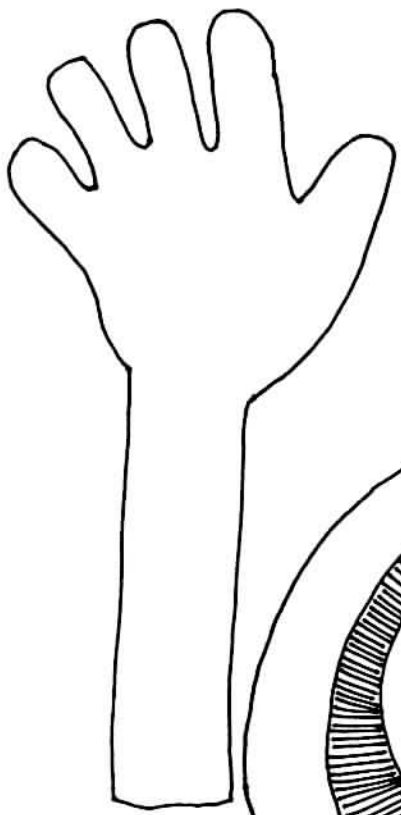

Fr. Leo John Dehon, SCJ

“Here I am, O God,
I come to do your will.”

Hebrews 10:7

When I say,
"Here I am,"
who shows up?

“I come, O God.”

Priests of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Each morning, the Priests of the Sacred Heart tell Jesus that they are ready and willing to do whatever God is asking them to do this day. They will look to see what God's people need and they will try their best to answer those needs. At all times, they want to do this with lots of love. This is the spirit of their founder, Fr. Leo John Dehon, SCJ.

You can join them by saying this prayer.

Dear God,
everyday,
Fr. Leo John Dehon offered to do whatever you asked of him.
Sometimes it was easy for him to do and other times it was hard.
Sometimes he made mistakes,
but he always tried his best because he knew
you loved him so much.
With Fr. Dehon's help to remind me that you love me,
I want to do my best today.
I know that's what you want from me.
Amen.
